APRIL FEATURED ARTIST

Cindy Gilberti

Cindy Gilberti is an artist from western Pennsylvania. Inspired by nature and the outdoors, she strives to make the ordinary extraordinary by interpreting her world using color and gesture in an expressionistic style. She enjoys painting light and values in her compositions through observation and plein air and is equally comfortable painting in watercolor and pastels. Like most other artists, she is continually experimenting with new mediums to see how they can be incorporated into her designs.

Cindy exhibits her artwork around the tri-state area and is currently the Vice President of the Pittsburgh Pastel Artist League. She is also a member of the Pittsburgh Watercolor Society, Cranberry Artists Network, McMurray Art League and the West Hills Art League. Cindy has also served as a juror for various art exhibitions. Her involvement with regional artists through these endeavors inspired her to open her own art studio and gallery in Coraopolis; Gilberti Fine Art Studio & Gallery and strives to promote art and artists throughout our community.

She has studied with numerous internationally recognized artists including Marla Baggetta, Christine Swan, Terri Ford, Jacob Aguiar, Sterling Edwards, Susan Harrison-Tustain, Frank Webb, Tom McNickle, Jeannie McGuire and more.
