MAY FEATURED ARTIST

BRADLEY PAGE

I spent most of my life drawing, painting, and creating. Like many artists I have taken different paths and explored new mediums throughout the artistic journey. I continue to work in new mediums and explore new styles. My work generally falls between Impressionism and Realism. I enjoy an occasional attempt in abstract realism which is the style I primarily painted early in my artistic journey.

In recent years I have narrowed my focus and limited the mediums as I found I really enjoyed painting landscape and wildlife. I like to use bold expressive color and try to build a depth to the work. I am always willing to think out of the box and reach outside of my comfort zone in order to develop new techniques that will continue to grow my skill set. I work mostly with Oil, Acrylic, and Spray Paint.

I work out of my home studio in Butler, PA.
