A Message from Noele

Hello Fellow Artists!

I hope this message finds you healthy and safe!

I wanted to send an update about what our organization has planned in the upcoming months and the unexpected changes that this pandemic has created for everyone.

I know there was a lot of confusion about our Spring 2020 show pick up. Our closing show art pick up was occurring just as rolling shut downs were beginning. As some of our members were in Allegheny County and they were the first to order a stay-at-home mandate, we pushed the pick up to a later date. I was in contact with the municipal building staff about a later pick up, but again, rolling closures made that more difficult. For everyone's safety, we put the pick up on hold and will update on when pick up can/will occur.

Our next event, the Annual General Membership Meeting, scheduled for May 7, has also been postponed, as large gatherings and meetings were cancelled in the municipal building. We are potentially rescheduling this for a date in June, and will continue to monitor this according to the Governor's health guidelines and those that the Township puts in place.

I have also been informed that CTCC is cancelling our annual "Martinis With Monet" Art Expo and Community Days in July. The big factor in their decision was that there is a massive amount of planning behind the scenes (and starts early) that would have already had to be in place—sponsors, vendors, advertising—as well as the manpower adjustment on the part of the township and essential services. They are looking forward to a big bash in July 2021!

Our Back Hall Gallery artist shows are another area that is still up in the air for scheduling. Vicki Schilling is the contact person for this exhibition space. She and I continue to speak with municipal building staff and we will look at the current artist schedule list and contact individuals about moving forward with a show, once we are able to hang shows.

The First Tuesday Open Drawing sessions and Plein Air drawing groups are also postponed for now. We will certainly update members if these events are able to resume during the summer months.

I know that firm answers are rare right now, and that decisions seem to be changing every day. We share in your frustration, fear and future about the "new normal" that we all will certainly be a part of. We will do our best to inform our membership about any updates and changes that affect what we all love to do-make art and show it off!

I hope you and your families are making the best of this difficult time and staying healthy!

Sincerely,
Noele Reynolds
President, Cranberry Artists Network

MAY FEATURED ARTIST & NEW CAN MEMBER

RODICA CONSTANTINE

Born near a rural monastery in Western Romania, as a child Rodica Constantine was constantly surrounded by beautiful color and texture. The peaceful and bucolic places were an inspiration that naturally drew her artistic inclinations toward painting and poetry. Her work strives to find and highlight beauty in all her subjects. Peaceful and quiet scenes are much enjoyed by Rodica who attempts to capture the magic of such times and places in her acrylic paintings. She feels blessed by the opportunities given to her within the group of local artists, and is grateful to those that came before her in organizing such meaningful and worthwhile activities.

I am not comfortable asking people to let us on their properties and am not sure when restrooms will be available for us to use. So go outside in your yard, or to a park on your own and make some art when the weather is good. If you send a pic to kbischak@comcast.net we will post it on the CAN Facebook page, and send to our Website coordinator. Thanks for your understanding.

Larry Brandstetter sent us a couple of simple fun scribbles. He said the Martinis with Monet show came to mind when doing "Quarantini" and the other entitled "Strength" will be added to his 8x10 series, tries to send a positive message.
