Cranberry Township's Public Art Committee is seeking mosaic artists for an art piece placed in their newly renovated outdoor space at their municipal building. This will be the inaugural piece in a series of their public art initiatives for the township.

Our mission is to create art that celebrates the inter-connectedness of people, nature, and place, using the symbol of the heart as a thread that runs through each piece, uniting the community. By highlighting the themes of togetherness, growth, and shared experience, the desire is to create public spaces where residents can gather, connect, and thrive. Through thoughtful, nature-inspired design, we strive to cultivate a collective sense of pride and identity, making art a central part of Cranberry's vibrant, evolving community.

The wall itself is 59' 2" long. The flat part under the ledge, at its highest point, is 18". Per the drawings, that full height runs for 24' and then either side will taper down to flush. There is a water feature directly in front of this area and is already installed. The new mosaic artwork would be installed under the bench ledge where visitors can sit and will extend to the ground (see photo).

This is an overview of the proposed Mosaic project and there are many more details to discuss with respect to design, timelines and submissions. Weatherdictates that work/installation would happen in May/June, with a completion date of July 1, 2025. Please contact Noele Reynolds, Public Art Committee member, 724-355-0033 (cell) or at ncrkr@aol.com, for more information.

EXHIBITIONS AND CLASSES

Upcoming event information:

Laura Pollak Workshop “Painting the Ethereal Light in both Landscape and Abstract” via Zoom Date: 03/05/2025 1:00 PM EST

Keeping warm? Here’s a great opportunity to stay inside where it’s nice and cozy and still attend a great pastel class series.

Popular pastel teacher Laura Pollak has agreed to do a 4-class Zoom (link coming) workshop for us which will take place on Wednesdays this March. It is called “Painting the Ethereal Light in both Landscape and Abstract”. The cost for members is $365 and $390 for non-members.

The class will be 1-5pm on Wednesdays March 5, 12, 19, and 26. Laura will contact you a few weeks before the first class to discuss your skill level, your goals for the workshop, and how the bulletin board function will be used for group & individual critiques. This is a class for newer pastel artists as well as those who have experience.

One of the best features of this 4-session pastel class is that Laura makes it available to the enrolled students on a private YouTube channel for one month so you can review and watch again. There will also be a Facebook community for her students to converse and interact as well as an online Bulletin Board to share works and help. So if you miss a class or if Wednesdays don’t work for you there is a good option.

Since this is such short notice the registration will be open to members and nonmembers alike... first come, first served. Laura needs a minimum of 12 students, with a maximum class size of 15 or so.

Supplies list coming.
