Art of the State Show Status

Greetings from The State Museum of Pennsylvania. Many of you may know that we remain closed to the public due to the COVID-19 crisis. So accordingly, we have been grappling with how best to go forward with Art of the State 2021. Because we do not yet have a museum re-opening date, we have determined to move forward with Art of the State 2021 as an online exhibit of digital images of art work that will premiere in September 2021. We're working on art work submission details right now and will be back in touch with Art of the State 2021 deadlines and anticipated reduced entry rates, so please stay tuned! Art work will still be juried by art professionals, and select prizes will be awarded.

If things change so that we will indeed be open to the public in time, we may be able to accept art work into the galleries for an in-person exhibit opening in September 2021. However, for now we are planning to continue our 50+ year tradition of holding Art of the State, but doing so virtually - online.

STATE MUSEUM NEWS and CALL FOR ARTISTS

New Virtual Artists/Conservations on Zoom Premiering Feb. 5

The State Museum of Pennsylvania is launching a series of virtual Friday lunchtime programs in February.

Fine Art Curator Amy Hammond will kick off this series by hosting a monthly conversation with an artist or art professional the first Friday of every month at 12:15 pm. On February 5, Ms. Hammond will welcome Ron Tarver, a Pulitzer Prize-winning photographer who has explored many facets of the African-American community for over 30 years. His fine art work has been exhibited nationally and internationally and is included in many museum, corporate, and private collections including the National Museum of American Art of the Smithsonian Institution in Washington DC, Philadelphia Museum of Art, and The Studio Museum In Harlem. His work entitled "Vented Steam" is in The State Museum's permanent collection. Mr. Tarver served as a juror for the 2020 Art of the State exhibition.

All of our Learn at Lunchtime programs are free via Zoom - plan to eat your lunch and enjoy great dialogue about art and artists! To register for this program, visit our Learn at Lunchtime web page: <http://statemuseumpa.org/learnatlunchtime>

One Lens Online Exhibition - Entries Accepted Beginning Feb. 8

We'd like to let you know about a special opportunity for an online photography exhibition. Pennsylvania's First Lady Frances Wolf has announced a special online exhibition entitled One Lens: Sharing Our Common Views -- The First Lady's Virtual Photo Exhibition Project. To quote from Mrs. Wolf's message announcing the project:

"One Lens is a virtual photo exhibition to give each and every Pennsylvanian the opportunity to share their COVID-19 stories through photography. One Lens is our chance to show what it is like to experience this extraordinary moment in history. Because art has the power to heal us, and by telling our stories, we can honor our efforts during this time, recognize our achievements, and help sustain each other as we continue the fight..."

Online submissions will be accepted Feb.8 - Mar. 8, 2021. The show goes live on Mar. 19, 2021. For more details and submission instructions, please visit <https://www.pa.gov/one-lens/>
